As noted in the December 27, 2011 Scoping Ruling issued by the Assigned Commissioner and Administrative Law Judge in R.11-10-023^[1], Energy Division is holding workshops on these two days in order to discuss party proposals filed on January 13, 2012 and to specifically discuss Energy Division's proposals (attached) on the following topics:

- (1.) Qualifying capacity rules for dynamically scheduled or pseudo tie resources
- (2.) Changes to the rounding convention adopted in Decision (D.) 07-06-029
- (3.) Revisions to the Maximum Cumulative Capacity bucket percentages and some policy changes to refine and clarify additional policies

The Scoping Ruling directed parties to file proposals on topics in the scope of the proceeding on January 13, 2012. Energy Division will create an agenda based on proposals that are received on January 13th, and distribute it before the workshop. Energy Division will contact parties before the workshop in the event parties are interested in making presentations and leading discussions at the workshop, and some parties might be asked to summarize their presentations and workshop discussions regarding their presentations to help Energy Division staff compile a workshop report. Presentations will be added to the record, so parties are encouraged to make them as detailed and specific as possible. Administrative Law Judge Gamson and a Court Reporter will be present for parts of the workshops. Energy Division and/or parties will be able to summarize the presentations and discussion at the workshops for the record.
